

Namrath Suggests.
The river is falling at this writing.
B. F. Barnes was in Dalton Monday on business.
Lee Chitty made a business trip to Keytesville, Tuesday.
Mrs. George Shively visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hall Fleming, last week.
The Brewer family and some select friends were at the "cut-off" last week having a fish fry.
George Payton, wife and little boy visited relatives and friends, near Salisbury, Saturday and Sunday.
The rain Sunday night made the wheat too wet to thrash, consequently the threshers and farmers looked pretty blue the first of this week.
We had a very heavy rain Sunday night, which benefited the corn very much. There was quite an electric storm in some parts of this township.
They had another picnic, at New Faankfort, Saline county, last Saturday. Several of "the boys" from Namrath attended, and report a nice time.
While out riding Sunday, we met a party from Brookfield going to the "cut-off." They were equipped with camping utensils and seemed prepared for a long stay.

A young man representing the Arbuckle Coffee Co., was at Namrath last Friday. He was riding a bicycle of the Columbia make. He rides over four counties every sixty days.
John Goll returned Monday from St. Louis where he has been with his wife for about ten days at the Baptist sanitarium, where she had gone for medical treatment. He reports that she is rapidly improving and thinks she can come home in two weeks. We are glad to hear of her improvement and that she will be at home soon, for Mrs. Goll is a very pleasant and agreeable lady.

Tripletts Times.
Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Norman's infant child is very sick.
Miss Corda Elliott, of near Brunswick, is visiting the family of F. M. Elliott.
Joe Mason, who has been sick for some time, is again able to be on our streets.
Mrs. M. G. Garrison is very low. We did not learn what is the matter with her.
A. C. Fleetwood has opened up his stock of gents' furnishing goods in his new building.
F. M. Elliott and H. C. Smith went to Omaha, Nebraska, Monday morning to buy stock.
Miss Carry Lee Carter, of the W. C. T. U., lectured here Sunday night to a good audience.

Mrs. M. E. Shipp, who has been visiting at Salisbury for some time, returned home a few days since.
J. H. Kermickel has bought John Barnes' livery stable, which he will use for implements as he will be in line with the hardware and implement merchants, as soon as W. F. Tucker's new brick building is completed.
Master Owen Bowman, who has been visiting with his aunt, Miss Lou Crockett, at Kansas City and Springfield for the past two months, returned home Wednesday evening, accompanied by his cousin, Miss Katie Miller, of Kansas City.

Salisbury Scribbblings.
Our city council will open bids for revising city ordinances next Monday.
Plenty of watermelons in town, but they are not in reach of common people yet.
Prods. Briggs and Heston are out rustling for their respective schools despite the hot weather.
Dr. Redman has moved his family from the Naylor property, 4th street to the Forrest property on 2nd street.
Mrs. Iva Dunn and Miss Rose Street are suffering from pulmonary troubles, and are in a delicate condition.
The ball game last Saturday drew a good crowd and the gate receipts, for men only, amounted to $38.
The sensational damage suit of Joseph J. Gittinger vs Barney Abela resulted in a verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $150.
Word comes from the country that the blackberry crop is short, and the frugal housewife will not jam up as usual.
The base-ball and amusement park of Peters & Karcher is beginning to attract attention and promises to become quite a resort.
A. T. Gallimore has taken a position on the P.-S. He has moved to town, and occupies the Hammeek property in College Place addition.
Circuit court week drew large crowds of people to our city, but there was a noted absence of a disposition to crowd the courtroom, so noticeable heretofore.

The trial of Alf. Badger, for carrying concealed weapons, is set for Thursday before T. Newbold. Badger carried a slung-shot, and when arrested for being intoxicated, it was found on him.
The colored teacher's institute is in session here this week conducted by Prof. Vivion. The teachers in attendance are fine looking men and women, and seem to be deeply interested in their work.
The game of ball here Tuesday between Brunswick and Salisbury was not played to a finish, owing to a kick against a decision of Umpire White. The decision was a close one, and we do not know whether it was correct or not, but was sorry to see the game end thus, as it had been a pretty one up to this point. The score stood at end of the 4th inning, Salisbury 13, Brunswick 18. In the 8th when the trouble came up, Brunswick had made two more runs.
Word was received here Monday of the sudden death of Mrs. A. J. Walburn, three miles south of town. She got up in the morning and did her work as usual until about 9 o'clock, when she felt a pain in her head. Her husband, who was out about the barn, was called, and others gathered in a few moments, but she sank rapidly, and died in less than an hour. She was formerly a Mrs. Hurst, mother our fellow-townman, Dr. C. C. Hurst, and was highly esteemed. She leaves a husband, one child and grandchildren to lament her death. Her age was about 60 years, and her life had been one of industry and usefulness.

Guthridge Mills Gossip.
Considerable sickness is in this neighborhood.
The corn crop is looking well, and bids fair to make a big yield.
Bob Brewer and James Rogers will supply this neighborhood with coal hereafter.
George Pollard is nursing a badly bruised arm from the effects of a kick by a horse.
Charles Grindstaff and wife, from near St. Catherine, visited relatives in this community last Saturday and Sunday.
William Rhoades and Henry are to start on a tour to Camden county in September, where Mr. Rhoades expects to make his future home.
A great deal of the wheat has been threshed. The yield is reported good, but the quality was damaged on account of too much rain after the grain was in the shock.
Annie, the little 11-year-old daughter of J. P. Hess, was bitten by a rattlesnake Thursday and died the next day. Interment took place at Mt. Pleasant cemetery on Saturday, funeral services being conducted by Rev. C. Dewees. We tender our sympathies to the bereaved family.

Mendon Mention.
Prof. Moore is visiting in Kirksville.
Mrs. Bell Wilson is somewhat better, but is still quite low.
Miss Carrie Felt is attending the teachers' institute, at the capital.
The many friends of Harry Long will be glad to learn of his recuperating health.
Born:—To Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hart on July 16th, a 12-pound boy. Mother and child are doing nicely.
Dr. T. D. Leonard and wife, of Texas, are visiting Mrs. Leonard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Anderson, of our city.
Our town is blessed (?) with four life insurance agents at present. Like the old lady, we exclaim: O, Lord, what next?
It is to be hoped that Mendon will not surrender her good name by allowing base ball to be played on her commons on Sunday.
Preaching at the First M. E. church next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. At 8 p. m., the pastor will preach a sermon to young ladies.
The base ball game of the season was played here last Friday between the Mendon and Boazworth teams, and resulted in the defeat of Mendon by a score of 3 to 1.
The 4th has come and gone, and once more we settle down to the usual business cares of life. We note, however, that only one drunken person was seen on our streets on the 4th, but that person was the head of a family.

The quarterly meeting of the M. E. church for Mendon and Zion churches will be held, at Zion, July 28th and 29th. Presiding Elder Clayton will preach at 8 p. m., on the 28th, and will hold quarterly conference on Monday, July 29th, at 2 p. m. Rev. W. H. LaVake, the pastor in charge, will preach at 11 a. m. on the 28th.
